The Accredited Veterinary Nurse Scheme

Application Form
for Re-Accreditation

This scheme has been developed by the Veterinary Nurses Council of Australia and the Australian Veterinary Association (working together through the National Industry Advisory Group for Veterinary Nursing) in response to the need for recognition of an individual nurse's competence, currency and dedication to the veterinary nursing profession.

The Accredited Veterinary Nurse has her or his name entered onto a register held by the VNCA/AVA and is entitled to wear an individually numbered AVN badge. The badge is recognised by colleagues, employers and the public as a symbol of excellence. Maintenance of accreditation status is required through evidence of continuing professional development accrued over 3 years as follows.

Criteria for Application

Applicants are required to present evidence of the following:

1. A declaration from the employer stating that the applicant continues to work at Certificate IV Level.
2. Continued membership of the Veterinary Nurses' Council of Australia Inc.
3. Continuing education in the previous 36 months period accumulating no less than 90 points, to be allocated as follows:
  - 1 hour of continuing education 1 point
(max. 18 points in any 1 year)
  - a case report using the guidelines supplied 10 points
  - answering CE questions in the AVNJ 1 point
(max. 6 points in any 1 year)
  - documented text book review 10 points
  - delivering a presentation at a seminar/conference 15 points

Definitions:

Continuing Education is deemed to be attendance or involvement at an appropriate presentation, seminar or conference where the applicant has added to his/her professional knowledge base and/or skills.

Case Report refers to the accurate observation and recording of a patient who has been nursed by the applicant during the course of a treatment or procedure. The report must be completed using the "AVNJ Case Report Guidelines". The report should include patient details, history, presentation, attending vet's assessment, treatment, medication details, progress and outcome. Special detail is required about the nursing aspects of the case and what has been learned by the applicant during the process.

Questions in the AVNJ relate to the technical articles found in each edition. Applicants should attach a VNCA letter of verification.

Book Review should be made of an appropriate text that has added to the knowledge base of the applicant. The review should include a summary and critique. Minimum 600 words.

Seminar Presentation refers to the applicant speaking for more than half an hour on appropriate veterinary nursing matters to a group of peers, such that a seminar attendee is deemed to have added to his/her continuing education points. A documented or recorded detail of the presentation showing venue and date is required, together with evidence to show that the applicant did indeed make the presentation.

Application
